

The Rhapsody Project Songsters Community Guidelines

I. We conduct ourselves in alignment with the values, mission and vision of The Rhapsody Project, as detailed on the organization's website.

II. We respect the other songsters and members of our community and any spaces where we meet.

III. We are welcoming to new songsters and foster a supportive community.

IV. We participate actively, listen attentively and communicate respectfully.

V. We challenge ourselves and each other to grow musically.

VI. It is everyone's job to help other songsters with their musical growth.

VII. We each will uphold these guidelines individually and collectively with compassion and consideration for one another's positionality.

VIII. The Rhapsody Project is a sociable organization and community, where we joke around and stay goofy, but balance our fun with serious learning.
